tel-e-sis (těl' ə sīs): Progress intelligently planned and directed; The attainment of desired ends by the application of intelligent human effort to the means.

DEDICATION

Mr. Francis X. Slevin

The 1968 Telesis, like all preceding Teleses, is both a record of one year of Colorado Academy and a remembrance to the Senior Class. It is therefore indeed appropriate that their Telesis should be dedicated to the man who has most influenced that class. Mr. Francis X. Slevin in his capacities as English teacher, housemaster, and advisor to many school organizations, not only has set an example for many to emulate but also has acted positively to bring about improvement and maturity in those students under his tutelage.

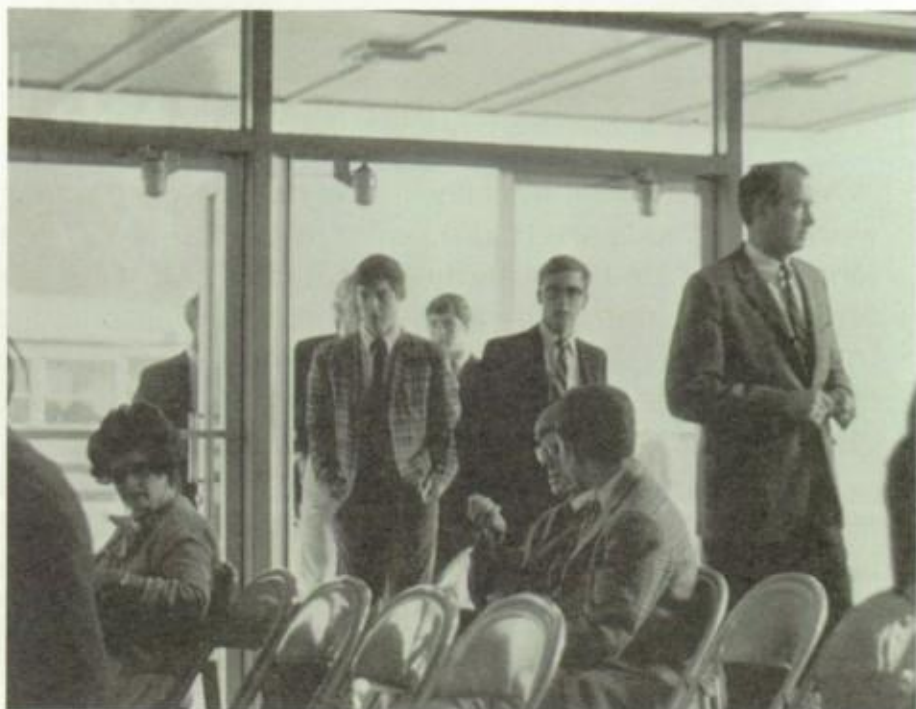

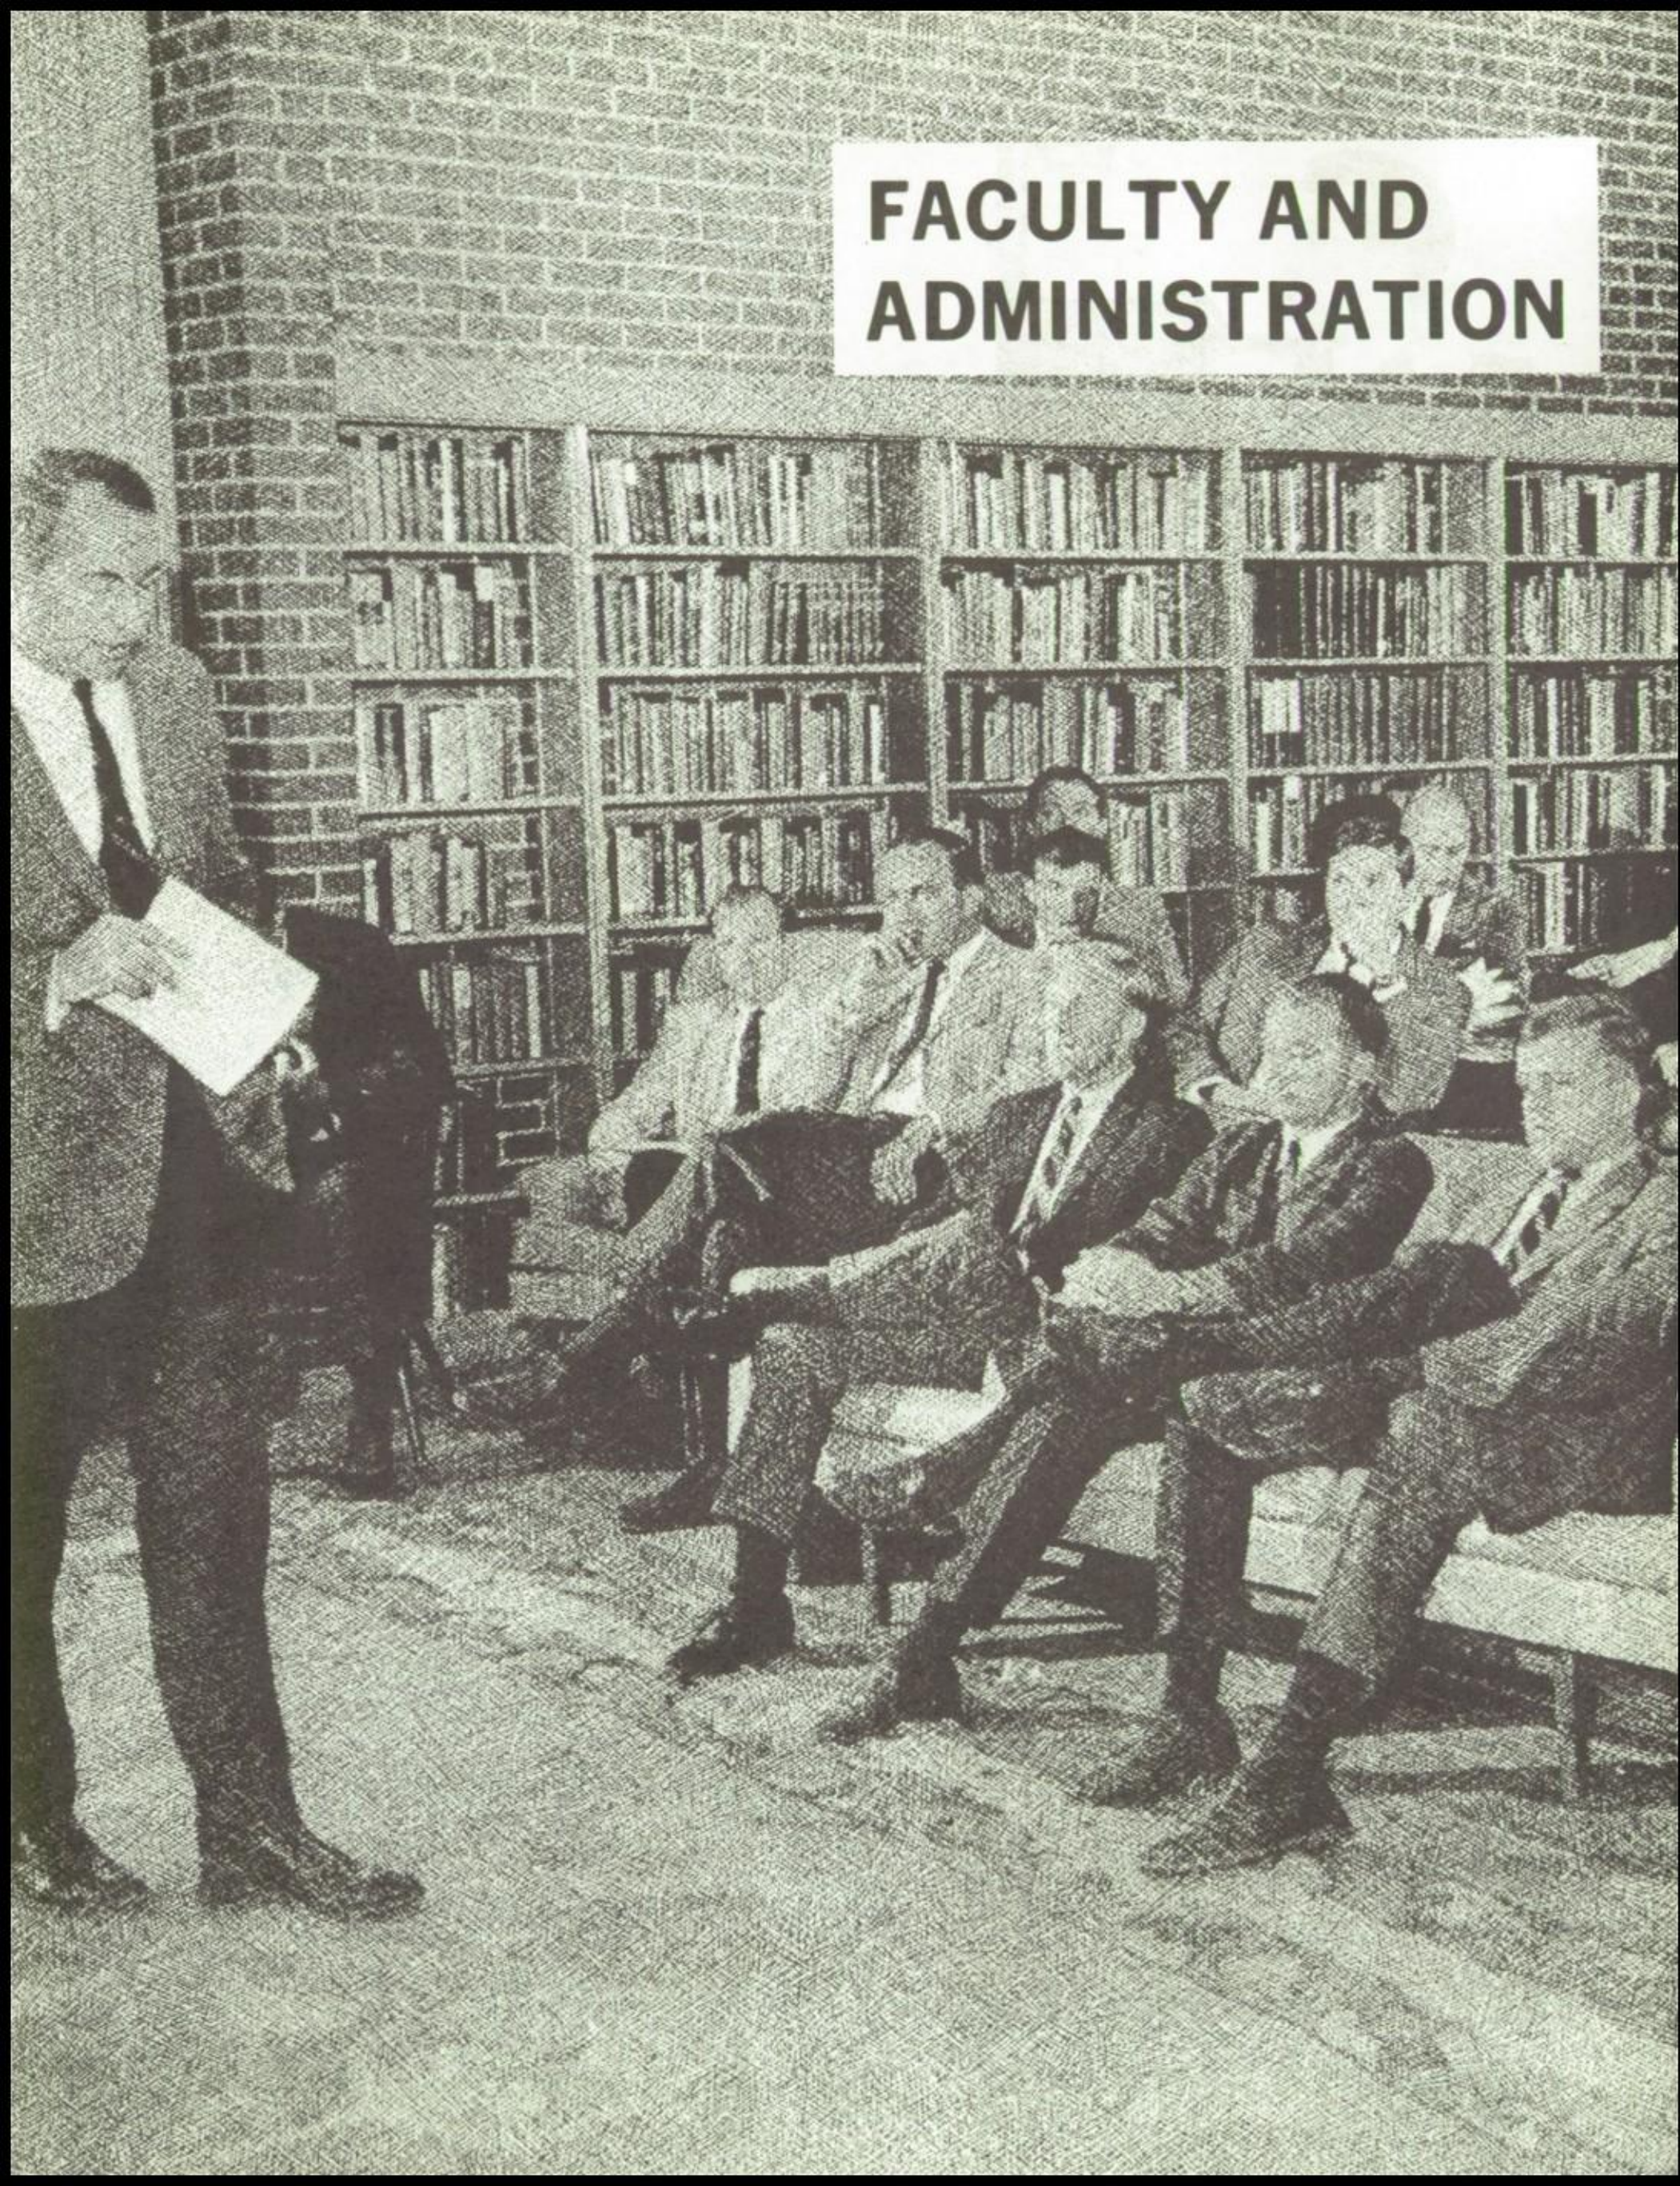

Ask any senior what class he has next or what paper he is writing and odds are that he will answer "Slevin." An excellent teacher and an utterly logical man, Mr. Slevin in his English class opens the eyes of all his students to some of the truths and realities of life. As dorm master and advisor, he demonstrates to students the correct method of doing "things" and then makes sure that they are done.

Not only is Mr. Slevin an eminent teacher-advisor but a friend as well, as his students and the streams of returning alumni will testify. Therefore, it is in tribute to this man and to the wonders he has brought about that the class of '68 dedicate this yearbook.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Life this year seems a paradox. For our love of peace we are now in our third war in three decades.

For our love of independence and freedom we commemorate Henry Thoreau with a stamp. He said:

"That government is best which governs least."

With a slogan such as that Thoreau could be an enthusiastically supported candidate of the most conservative political groups in this land. Yet, the quotation is from "On Civil Disobedience," an essay used almost as a bible by the present day minority groups as they explode and destroy their cities and challenge their laws.

This is the curious world into which the Class of 1968 will move. If it's true that to be happy one must face challenge, '68' has the opportunity of being the happiest of all. We hope they are ready.

A black and white photograph of a student in a library. The student is sitting at a wooden table, leaning over and looking at a book. The background is filled with tall bookshelves packed with books. The lighting is soft, creating a quiet, studious atmosphere. The student is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark pants. The book they are looking at is open, and their hands are resting on the pages. The overall composition is a medium shot, focusing on the student and their interaction with the books.

PRESCHOOL

UPPER SCHOOL ATHLETICS

Colorado Academy's Varsity Football team, led by a tough-nosed defense and an offense which averaged 23 points per contest, finished with a traditionally fine season. Under the command of head coach Robert Simms, the "Big Red" were turned loose to post seven victories against only two losses. So rugged was the "Mustangs" defense that opponents were shut out five times and held to less than seven points on two other occasions.

After opening victories over the C.A. Alumni and Estes Park, C.A. ran into trouble over the next three weeks, losing two games. But the team picked up momentum and finished the season with four consecutive wins. High points of the season were the 33-0 drubbing of St. Anthony's in the Homecoming Game, and the 13-0 whitewashing of Fountain Valley, marking the third victory in as many years over FVS.

Top players this year were fullback Jay Watson, linebacker John Bass, tackle Dolph Andreae, and quarterback Mark Reed.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Cross-country running, coached by Mr. Allen Banbury, was C.A.'s newest fall sport this year. The small but powerful squad drew much of its strength from three veterans of the varsity track team, Fred Bills, Steve Gordon, and Pete Morris. Other team members included Doug Barton, Jeff Chappell, Bob Rosenberg, and David Wilson. Though plagued by injuries and meet cancellations, the team finished the season with a clean record.

Additional help in training for the two-mile course was received in weekly visits by Dr. Alan Watts, of the Denver Track Club.

VARSITY SOCCER

Under the direction of Coach Dylan Evans, the Varsity "A" Soccer team enjoyed an exceptionally fine season this year.

Though hampered by injuries, the incredibly strong forward line of Peter Stonington, Phil Levy, David Wilhelm, Bruce Cranmer, and Orachoon Yomchinda led the team to an even record against college freshman teams, and a winning record against high school opposition. The defense, headed by goalie Will Osborn and halfback Tom Butler, was equal to the task and held the Mustang's opponents to an average of one goal per contest.

Team leadership was provided by Captain Peter Stonington and Assistant Captain Phil Levy. Victories over such teams as Denver Christian, and Colorado School of Mines, plus ties with Air Force Academy Frosh and the Colorado College Freshman team made this year's Varsity one of the most pleasant surprises of the '67-'68 season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Colorado Academy's Varsity Basketball Team, still smarting from the loss of last year's graduates, pulled through with a mediocre 5-9 record. The C.A. cagers were hurt considerably by lack of height this season, but excellent shooting and hustle paved the way for several victories.

The team was led by seniors Dick Jacobs, Ray Perkins, Clay Cox, and Alan Gersten, with juniors Monte Pearson and Dave Price handling the back court.

Best performances this year were against Estes Park, D.C.D., and the final game against Fountain Valley which saw the Mustangs play a superior team on even grounds for three quarters before finally bowing to them.

The C.A. "B" team led by Paul Clark, Ken Lange, and Bob Jacobs compiled a respectable 5-7 season. Their strong showings against Lookout Mountain, Elliott, and Summit County indicate a nucleus for next year's Varsity.

SKI TEAM

Instructed by Coaches Monnell and Golaz, the Colorado Academy Ski Team completed a successful season. Although the team was hampered by the usual ski injuries, fine performances by Alpine skiers Terry Lawrence, Jim Kerr, Pete Stonington, and Nordic skiers Charlie Johnson, Frank Smith, and Jeff Lowdermilk led the squad to a stunning upset by winning the Fountain Valley Meet. Despite the lack of an outstanding individual skier, overall team strength and depth brought consistently high finishes.

COACHES: MR. GOLAZ, MR. MONELL.

Led by Coach Art Bacon throughout most of its second season, the Varsity Wrestling Team experienced a frustrating year in their inaugural season of league competition. Lacking overall experience and crippled by lack of manpower, the matmen still managed to flatten Denver Christian in the league tournament for a seventh place finish. Most consistent wrestler this year was David Day. Sam Christian, Gary Chavez, Charlie Cavness, and Les Connelly should be credited for their wins.

LACROSSE

Among the best in Colorado was Colorado Academy's Varsity Lacrosse Team. Rapidly becoming the most popular and successful spring sport at the school, this year's squad met such rugged opposition as Denver Country Day, Adams City, Air Force Academy Frosh, and East High.

Valuable assets to the team were returning seniors John Bass, Charles Richards, Thom Mansur, Dick Jacobs, and Jeff Baker, along with juniors Charles Cavness and Charles Young. Under the coaching of Rod Fingles, this unit formed the nucleus of a well-balanced defense and attack.

There are many things that the members of this year's team will never forget; among them are "chase the ball" drills, the coaches' anguished yells in practice, and the cry of "orbit, Bass-Gimme three orbits!"

BASEBALL

Hoping to rise from the ashes of past seasons, the Varsity Baseball Team gave new promise for future teams by posting a respectable record. Coach Wood seemed satisfied with a strong infield which included Dolf Andraee and John MacDonald alternating as catcher and first baseman, Mike McCready at second base, Dave Price at short stop, and Mark Reed and team Captain Ken Lange at third base. The outfield was manned by Will Osborn, Alan Gersten, John Malo, and Randy Lanser.

Hitting was C.A.'s forte this year as the pitching staff was long in settling down. Top batsmen were Andraee, Reed, MacDonald, and Lange.

GOLF

Though often mocked by the other students, the "wierdo's" in the funny-looking shoes and the colorful sweaters were not refugees from Saturday study hall but the proud members of C.A.'s Golf Team.

Faithfully following student-coach Charlie Goodin to Wellshire for practice sessions, the team planned meets with other schools. On rainy days the golfers polished their "Arnold Palmer Certified Equipment and delighted over the latest exploits of Mac Divot. Seriously, the Golf Team was a striking example of the flexibility of C.A. athletics, being a team organized and run by a few students with an interest in golf.

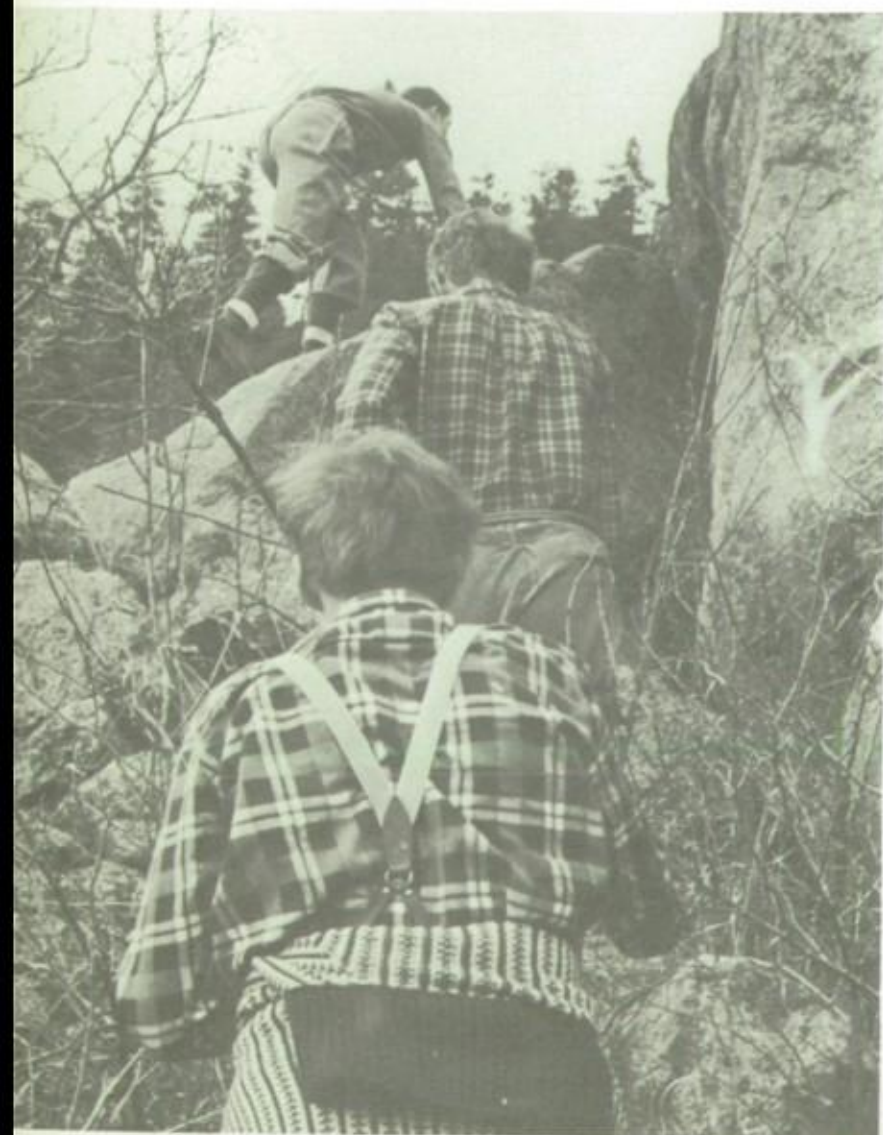

MOUNTAIN TRAINING

Once again Ernest "Tap" Tapley's surefooted instruction led C.A.'s Mountain Training Squad to new heights in the art of Mountain Climbing.

Experienced climbers such as Mike Burdick, Jim Kerr, and Kurt Carran were able to perfect their techniques, and the novices acquired new knowledge in a dimension of nature hitherto unknown to themselves.

KAYAKING: Coach Stickney, P. Stonington, T. Lawrence, S. Leiman, B. Bistline, B. Cranmer, J. Campbell, F. Smith, B. Prockter, P. Mead, R. Smith.

The Kayak Team paddled its way through turbulent waters to finish the year with an unmarred record. Directed by Mr. Stickney, Team members built their own boats, developed kayaking skills, and several brought their craft on the annual River Trip. Those most proficient in boating competed successfully in several meets this spring.

KAYAKING

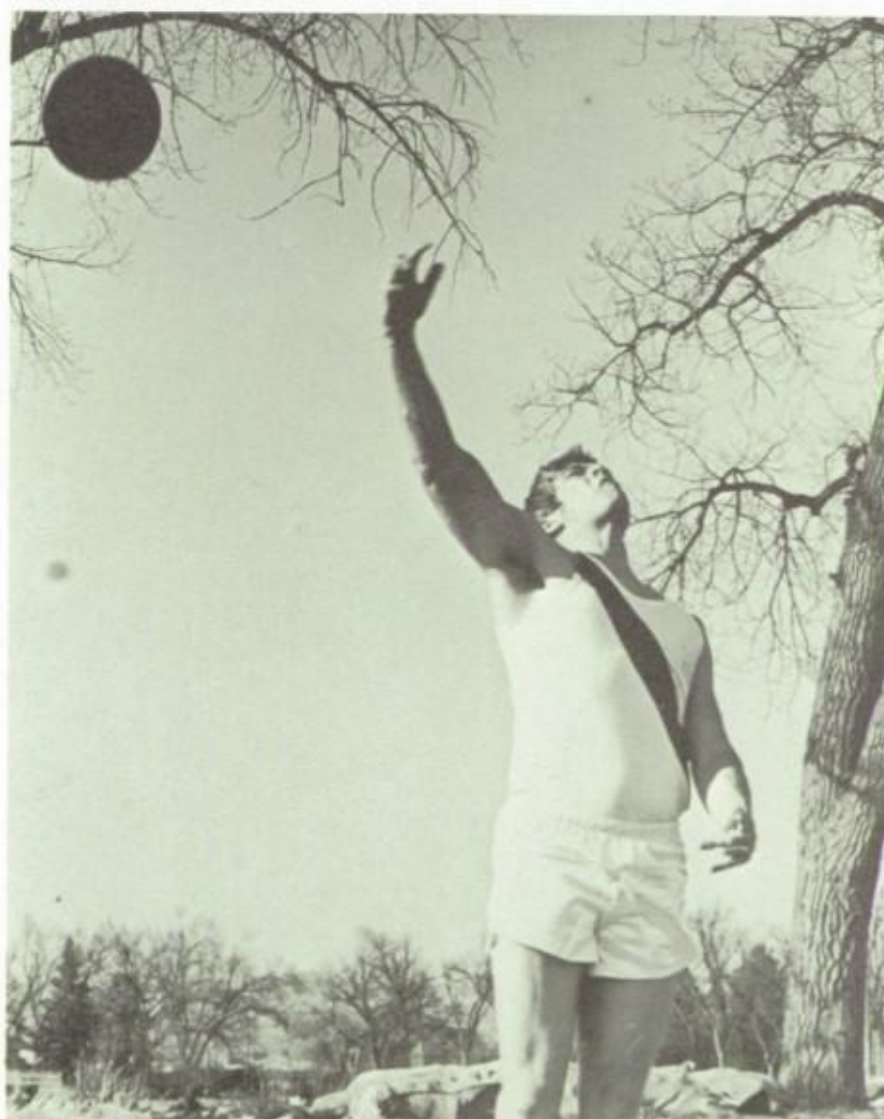

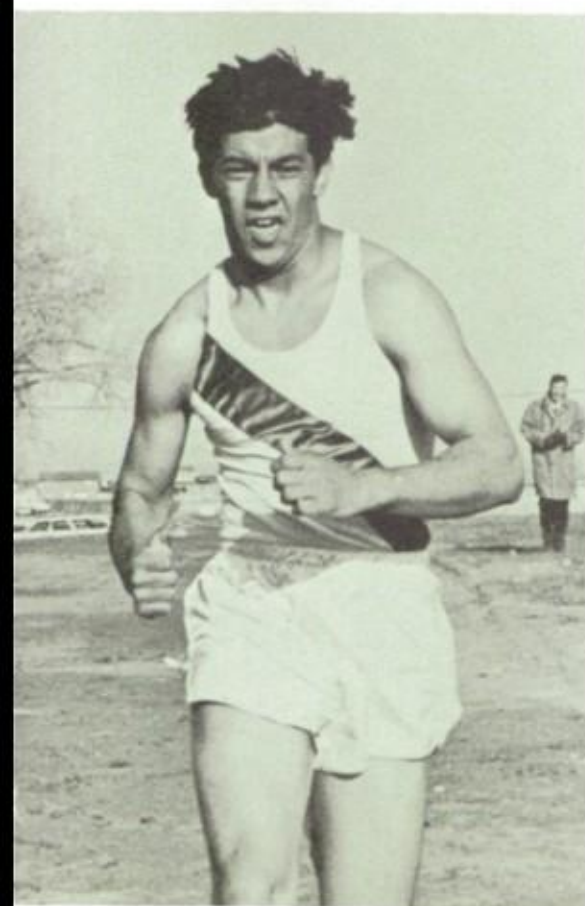

Under Coach Evans, the C.A. thinclads ran the circuit of meets to finish the season with a fair record and a good deal more experience. Though slowed by a small squad, the pace and spirit was quickened by the fine performances of two returning lettermen, weightman Jay Watson and runner-hurdler Fred Bills. Such newcomers as Rudy Salazar, Jeff Lowdermilk, Jim Wilson, and Robert Jacobs were cited as good additions.

FOOTBALL

The Junior High "A" Football team, in compiling an even record, was the final stop for several of its players on their way to varsity careers. This year's squad played tough rugged football in registering victories over D.C.D. and Sheridan. Sloppy playing and overconfidence cost games to Graland and Flood Jr. High.

Also finishing with an even record was the Junior High "B" Football team. Composed of seventh and eighth graders, the "B" team under the direction of coaches Horan and L. Bartlett hopes to gain an understanding of football fundamentals.

COACHES, HORAN, L. BARTLETT

Year after year, Coach Thomas Fitzgerald and his Junior High "A" Soccer teams consistently post some of the finest won-lost records of the athletic season. This year was no exception as the "A" kickers fought to a 5-2-1 record. The squad started fast, winning their first four contests, but slowed up the last few games to mar their perfect record. The team was led by the outstanding play of Bruce Lowdermilk and Trig Travis.

The experience the Junior High "B" Soccer team gives to its players often shows up in later years on the Junior High "A" and Varsity levels. This year's "B" team, under the guiding hand of Coach Rehburg, succeeded in gaining experience and enjoying an outstanding season of 7 wins and 2 losses.

BASKETBALL

Despite a disastrous 2-10 record, the Jr. High "A" Basketball Team, under Coach Witherspoon, did not lose hope. Outclassed in most of their games, the junior cagers were able to reduce the margins of their defeats in the second half of the season. With a situation such as this, individual improvement became the primary concern of the year, with Bob Valdes and George Cannon showing the most progress. The scoring load was shared by Mike Glowan, Steve Smith, and Pete Theodore.

In contrast to the "A" squad, the Jr. High "B" Team raced through a 5-2 season, usually exceeding scores of 30 points a game which is an excellent average for this age group. Jake Warde was leading scorer for the Mustangs.

While unable to record a victory, the Seventh Graders were instructed in the basic fundamentals of C.A. basketball tradition. Mike Simms topped all other scorers during this rather unfortunate season.

LACROSSE

This year under the leadership of Coach Dave Emery, a strong Middle School Lacrosse team evolved. The team had many excellent returning players. As this year's Varsity team was composed mainly of graduating seniors, it is hoped that these players will help to fill the gaps.

BASEBALL

Coach Martin of the Jr. High "B" Baseball Team has the unenviable job of transforming inexperienced 7th and 8th grade hopefuls into a capable unit. The quantity of players and their willingness to learn should make his job easier and hopefully will pay off with several triumphs.

The Freshman Baseball Team coached by Mr. Rehburg expects a fine season with several talented performers available. Boasting such talent as Bob Valdes, Mike Jacobson, Steve Smith, and Mike Glowan, the squad should be able to challenge F.V.S., Graland, and Castle Rock for baseball supremacy.

ACTIVITIES

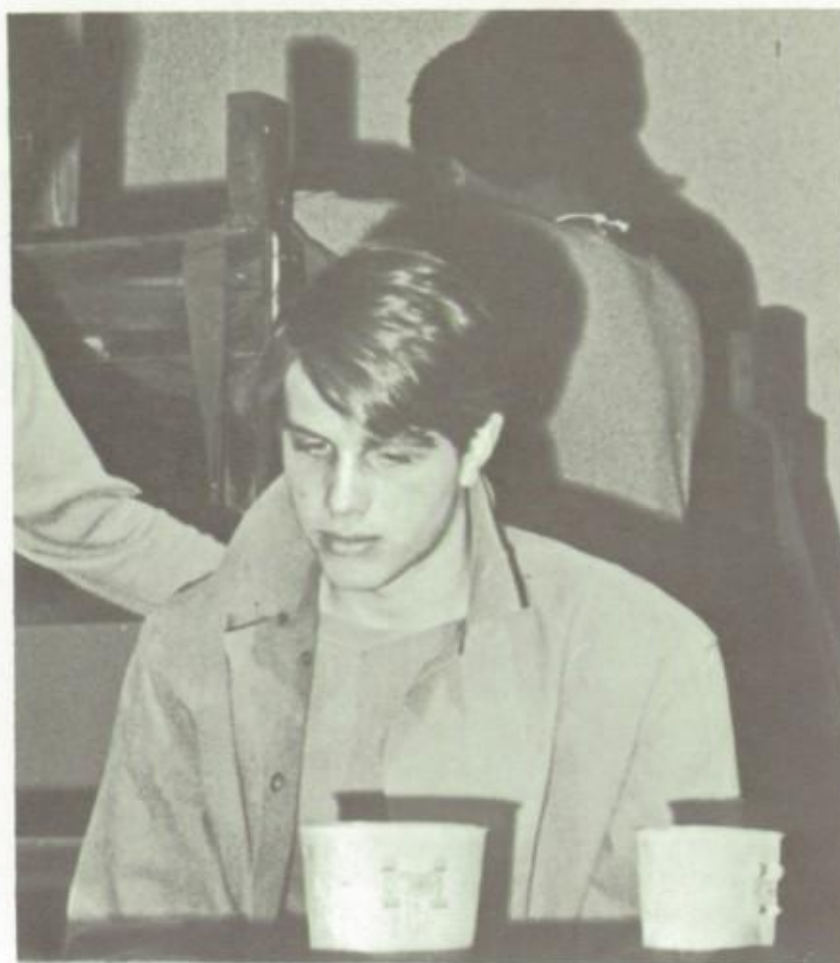

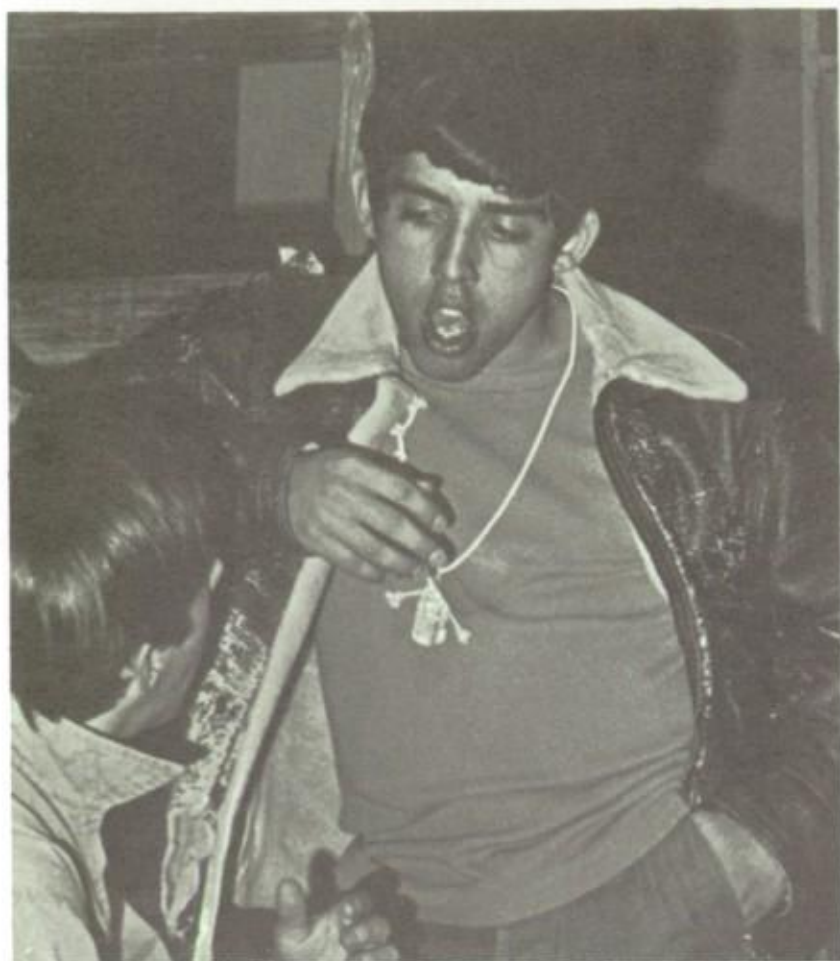

UPPER SCHOOL PLAY

STALAG 17

Fine drama has been a tradition at C.A. and this year's production of Stalag 17 held true to form. The play, an all-male drama of allied prisoners in a German POW camp, engrossed the audience from the opening murder of two escaping prisoners to the stunning climax.

The plot revolves around the attempt of the prisoners to learn the identity of a German agent, living in the barracks. This agent has relayed escape information to the guards and has foiled many attempts. Biff Birkenmayer, as Sefton, is the main suspect of the POW's. He vindicates himself by forcing the real agent, Price, played by Louis Newell, to tip his hand. Price is thrown into German machine gun fire by his angry "comrads" as Sefton and Dunbar escape. Mr. Ben G.M. Priest directed this outstanding performance.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of President Peter Stonington and Advisor Mr. Slevin, the 1967-68 Student Council was one of the most productive ones in recent years.

The Council's achievements this year were many. A more efficient and workable Constitution was drawn up and ratified. The Council ran the annual ski bus on weekends and sponsored a film festival with excellent films being shown every three weeks.

This year's Student Council has hopefully set a precedent for more active Councils to follow.

Student Council: President, P. Stonington; Vice-President, A. Cranmer; Secretary-Treasurer, D. Wilhelm; Twelfth Grade, J. Williams; Eleventh Grade, C. Cavness, G. Chavez, D. Price; Tenth Grade, J. Malo, S. Miller, W. Lawrence; Ninth Grade, G. Cannon, C. Saltsman; Eighth Grade, D. Hulbert, J. Treece; Seventh Grade, F. Cranmer, D. Milligan; Dormitory, G. McEwen, L. Newell; Advisor, Mr. Slevin.

MIDDLE SCHOOL PLAY

THE THIRTEEN CLOCKS

Mr. Ben G. M. Priest, drama director at C. A., adapted James Thurber's The Thirteen Clocks, a spoof on fairy tales, for this year's Middle School Play. In this "tale" the Handsome Prince was portrayed as a musclebound bumbler, and the Fair Maiden was characterized as a "dumb blond."

Two performances were given; November 17 and 18. The cast was one of the largest ever and Mr. Priest is to be congratulated for another job well done.

PUBLICATIONS

MUSTANG

Under Editor Louis Newell and Advisor Mr. Balfour, the school newspaper, The Mustang, turned out fewer editions than in years past but strove for quality instead of quantity. The hard working staff is to be congratulated for their journalistic endeavors and results.

HARVEST

L. Newell, F. X. Slevin, G. Chavez, C. Richards, O. Yomchinda, C. Johnson.

The school's literary magazine, The Harvest, reaped the best of C.A.'s crop of poetry, prose, art, and photography, under the direction of Mr. Slevin. Regular staff members included Gary Chavez, Louis Newell, Charles Richards, and Orachoon Yomchinda.

NAG

The NAG is the Middle School Satiric magazine which comes out at irregular intervals during the school year. Advised by Mr. Vosburgh, The NAG Staff allows no wrong doing to go unexposed. No sacred cow can escape the meat cleaver wielded by this dedicated group of men.

NAG: O'Brien, G. Nieman, C. Brown, T. Schuneman, E. Steinberg, T. Burns, P. Theodore, S. Johnson, Mr. Vosburgh.

TELESIS

Sports Staff Price and Bass.

R. Rosenberg, A. Gersten, S. Gordon.

BAND

Under the dual leadership of Mr. Lee and Mr. Soto, the Preps swung out from Moonglow to Whipped Cream. Although the group played only a few formal performances, the quality of their rehearsals showed that "the playing is the thing."

Band: C. Dines, M. Earnhardt, C. Goodin, S. Gordon, M. Jacobson, R. Lanser, F. Lewis, J. McDonald, C. Nicola, S. Norris, J. Sands, M. Siegert, R. Welton.

GLEE CLUB

"CATCHERS IN THE RYE"

C. A.'s major performing group this year, the Glee Club, enjoyed a number of appearances. Music written by Phil Levy, President of the Club, was featured at all performances, including the Phil Levy Compositional Concert. Highlight of the year was a tour to promote the club's record. Off-campus appearances included Colorado Springs, School for Girls, The ACIS Music Festival, and numerous performances for hospitals and nursing homes. The director was Mr. Woods. Accompanists were Ken Pray and Phil Levy.

Catchers in the Rye: S. Miller, E. Meyer, W. Osborn, D. Andreae, T. Claiborne, C. Johnson, J. McDonald, J. Haney. Glee Club: Mr. Soto, K. Pray, P. Emery, P. Crossland, H. Grimes, B. Thurmond, B. Bistline, J. Burdick, G. McEwen, J. Malo, D. Wilson, P. Levy, Mr. Woods, Third Row: C. Woolley, K. Perry, P. Boucher, G. Aubrey, D. Malo, D. Hulbert, B. Chalfant, H. Waters, M. Stark, C. Filley, B. McMullen, Fourth Row: C. Cox, D. Rice, D. Malo, F. Ryan, J. Lewis, P. Charbonneau, W. Perkins, J. Sands, D. Aitken, J. Sprauer, P. Stonington. Not Shown: R. Harbert, S. Christian, T. Travis, M. Weiker.

In their unmistakable sideburns and red vests, The Catchers In The Rye, the school's other vocal group, continued to sing madrigals and barbershop while performing with the Glee Club.

CHESS

Chess still remains the intellectual status symbol at C.A. despite the inroads made by the intellectuals in Bridge. The team had several opportunities to demonstrate its prowess at Club sponsored matches and tournaments with other schools.

Chess: D. Barton, J. Bennett, T. Bryant, R. Byron, T. Butler, P. Clark, C. Cox, A. Lee, G. Mehlmann, T. Minckler, S. Miller, S. Norris, C. Severy, J. Sokol. Advisors, Mr. Musil and Mr. Davenport.

BRIDGE

Bridge, enjoying increasing popularity at C.A., gained many new advocates and diehards this year. Played whenever possible, the Bridge Club led by Mr. Evans was a natural outlet for this new breed of fanaticism. The club held numerous tournaments for its members including instruction and play in duplicate bridge.

Bridge Club: B. Bistline, T. Butler, J. Campbell, P. Clark, G. Cox, A. Gersten, B. Hall, G. Mehlmann, S. Miller, P. Morris, L. Newell, M. Pearson, R. Perkins, R. Salazar, F. Smith. Advisor, Mr. Evans.

GUN CLUB

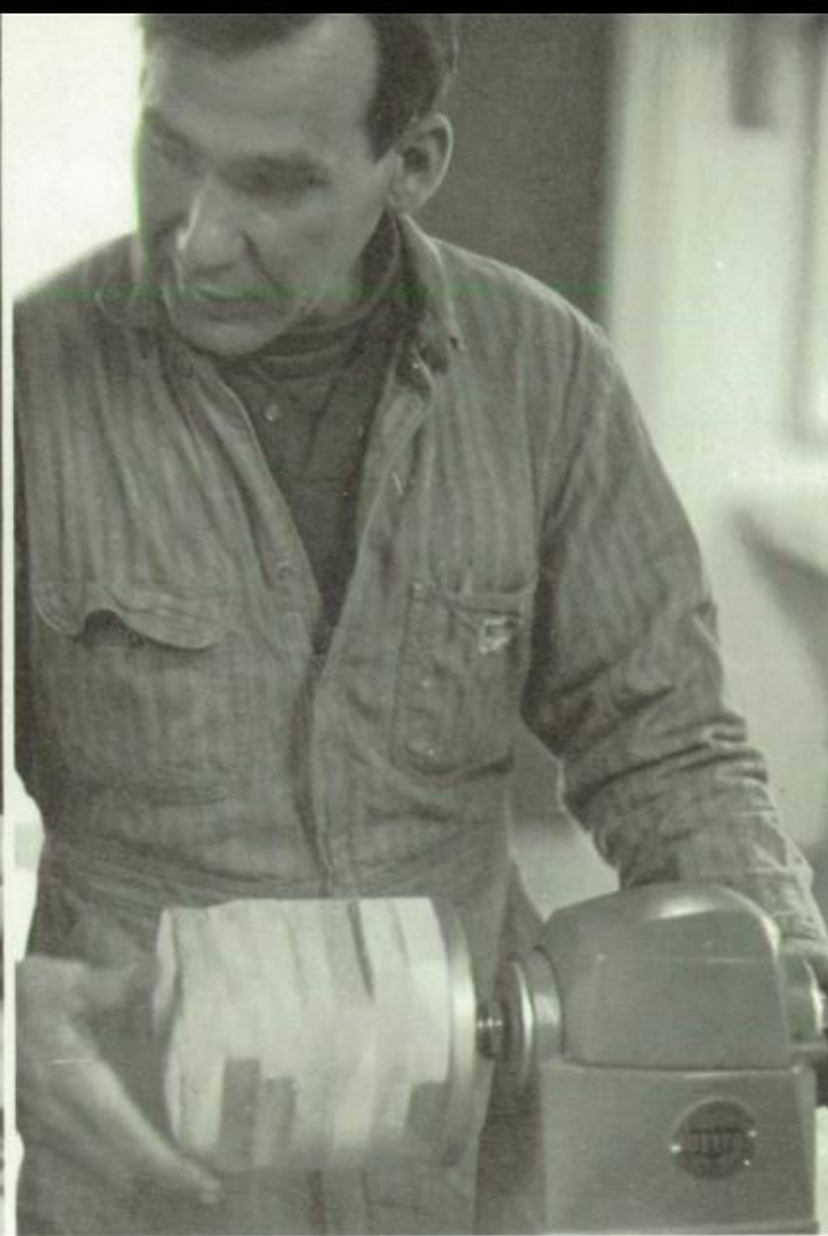

The Gun Club this year again had a very successful season. Under the guidance of Mr. Hulbert, the Club maintained an efficient operation, with members loading their own ammunition and maintaining a trap range on campus. Tee year was marked by intraclub shoots and the Red-White Classic.

SATURDAY MORNING PROGRAM

For the first time, a Saturday Morning Program was made mandatory for all boarders on campus. The available activities ranged from Art, Driver's Education, Woodshop, and Russian to volunteer work at area hospitals. Response to the program was enthusiastic due to the excellent planning of Mr. Evans, program director.

ART AND WOODSHOP

CURRENT EVENTS

Although the smallest activity, Current Events was by far the most vocal one. Under the auspices of Mr. Monell, who tried to remain the moderating influence between the forces of conservatism led by Doug Barton and Alan Gersten, and the liberal views of Robert Rosenberg and David Wilson, the group discussed current topics and crucial issues. Fierce debates inevitably followed these discussions.

Current Events; D. Barton, T. Dyer, A. Gersten, R. Rosenberg, D. Wilson. Advisor, Mr. Monell.

FIRE CREW

Due to the arson committed during the stockpiling of wood for the Homecoming bonfire, the fire crew was resurrected last November. Faculty advisor Mr. Feiler and Fire Chief Bob Irmas headed the group, most of whom have had first-aid training. Though the fire engine, the pride of the old crew, is gone, the school purchased $1,000 worth of new equipment for use by this year's crew.

CANDID CAMERA

The Photo Club is an informal organization of students who share a common interest in photography. The members of this group serve an important function at the Academy by providing pictures for the Mustang, Telesis, Quarterly, and other school publications.

Although the group meets twice weekly for discussions of many aspects of photography, and to view the creative work of its members, the nature of photography is such that most of the actual work is done by individuals on their own time.

MR. JOHN P. COTTON

Mr. John Cotton, after four fruitful years at C.A., is leaving to become Headmaster of Kimball Union Academy. Those who know him, know that his humorous exterior could not conceal his true regard for those under his tutelage. Those at C.A. who did not know him have missed an acquaintance with a fine human being. The Telesis staff takes this opportunity to extend best wishes.
